- Deferment navigator
 - Begins at mapping-your-future.org/paying/defernavnf.htm
 - Allows borrowers to determine deferment eligibility based on when their oldest outstanding loan was disbursed. Borrowers using this feature won't be confused by the entire list of student loan deferments, when they are only eligible for a few select types. There are two deferment eligibility charts for Federal Perkins Loans and three for the Federal Family Education Loan Program and Federal Direct Loan Program. The latter three have two versions: one which includes links to the blank deferment request forms (PDFs) and one without. If you have customized or online deferment forms on your site, you'll want to wrap the charts without forms.
